

We Welcome, Sylvia Roth, Kalmbach Park/s Feature Artist for June and July

SYLVIA ROTH, a native of Allentown has been a member of the Parkland Art League since 1977. She served as President, Vice-President, and Treasurer. She is also a member of the Bethlehem Palette Club.

After living in the Philippine Islands and Greece and raising 3 children, Sylvia renewed her interest in art when she studied oils with Alan Hermansader. Later she became fascinated with the transparency and spontaneity of watercolors and continued painting in watercolors. She studied with Judith Kreiger, Fred Bees, Lee Everett, Jim Musselman and others. She has taken workshops with many well known artists including Don Andrews, Dominic DeStefano, Mel Stabin, Janet Walsh, Skip Lawrence, Frank Webb, Nancy Barch, Jean Uhl Spicer and Tom Lynch.

She received her signature status in the Pennsylvania Watercolor Society in 2009 by having 2 paintings accepted in their juried shows. In 2012, she received signature status in the Philadelphia Watercolor Society. She has won numerous awards, and has had shows at the Rotunda, Allentown College and Luthercrest. Her paintings can be found in private collections throughout the country.

She has won first prize in many shows at the Parkland Art League, Bethlehem Palette Club and Concourse Club of Palmerton, as well as Art In The Park, and the Baum Art School. Recently she won Best of Show at the Parkland Art League show at Laura's Art and Framing. Presently, she is painting with the Thursday Art Group at St Ann's Church in Trexlertown. She is enjoying trying new techniques with her watercolors.
