

Kalmbach Park Presents

A pottery workshop in Native American traditions with instructor Lisa Caruso

5 Hands-On Sessions

Thursday Evenings 7:00-8:30 PM
May 4, 11, 18, 25, & June 8

Create

Handbuild Pottery
Form & refine, decorate surface, & fire

On-site

At Kalmbach Park
200 Cotton St., Macungie, PA 18062
kalmbachpark@gmail.com

Cost

5 Sessions
Payment of $60.00 per person by April 15th

Session #1

- Introductions
- Historic Background
- Demonstration
- Begin making clay form in Puki
- Clean Up

Session #2

- A moment of gratitude
- Review and demonstrate good technique
- Continue making form in Puki
- Add coils to build upward

Session #3

- A moment of gratitude
- Review and demonstrate good technique
- Add coils to build upward
- Refine surface scraping and smoothing
- Homework- continue refining surface

Session #4

- A moment of gratitude
- Refine surface scraping and smoothing
- Burnish with polished stone
- Discuss next session and firing our pots and party
- Homework- burnish until mirror shine

Session #5

- A moment of gratitude
- Go over firing process
- Safety concerns
- Party
- Reflect and give thanks